We strongly prefer the situation in which the entire security deposit is returned. It saves us time, hassles, and in the long run, money. Accordingly, we give this manual so you will know what needs to be done to a unit so we might turn it over to the next resident without doing additional work. Once you have performed the following work satisfactorily, your entire deposit will be returned promptly.

CLEANING SUGGESTIONS

When you are done cleaning the oven, turn it on for a few minutes. If it dries with a white residue left, take a clean wet cloth and wipe it clean.

When you are done in the bathroom, kneel down and look at the ceramic tile by the tub to see if the soap scum is completely gone. Also, look at the soap dish and toothbrush holder this way to make sure that the bottoms of these are clean. Check the bathroom in particular to make sure that all hair is gone.

When you are finished in the kitchen, look at the ceramic tile at an angle to check for any grease spots that may have been missed. Also, don't forget to check the bottom and edges of the range hood for leftover grease.

Don't forget the closets. These must be cleaned, swept and scrubbed.

Your apartment will be checked as much by touch as by sight. Run your hand over your counter and your bathtub and sink. If you come away with a white powder, it probably needs to be wiped off.

OTHER DEDUCTIONS

In addition to any cleaning charges, the following items will be deducted from your security deposit if they are not paid before the end of your lease:

Late fees, any outstanding invoices, any unpaid rent, any charges for returned checks, any legal fees that may have been incurred and any additional damage to either the apartment itself or the furniture.

Prior to your moving out you will probably become aware of many other companies that will solicit your carpet cleaning business. They may offer substantially lower prices but you should beware - a number of these companies are not established businesses; their equipment is not of professional quality and the work is often substandard. If when we inspect your apartment, the carpet cleaning is not up to our standards, we will first try to contact your cleaning company and ask them to come back and reclean. If we are unable to reach them or they refuse we will have the carpet re-cleaned by one of our cleaning services and you will be charged.

You may want to inquire as to the amount you will be charged for cleaning. Our contractors normally charge between $25-$38/hour for general cleaning. You will be charged exactly what they charge, plus a 15% administration fee.

FINAL NOTES

When you are finished cleaning your apartment and are ready to check out, this is the proper procedure:

1. Come to the rental office at
6 Marshall Square, Apartment J17
Camp Hill, Pa. 17011

Pay all rent and any delinquent charges.

2. Leave a forwarding address for the security deposit. Remember the security deposit check will be in all the lessee's names. In the past some of our residents have had trouble cashing checks because all names are on it. If you would prefer to have separate checks, it can be done if you give us a written statement to this effect, i.e.

"WE THE TENANTS OF APARTMENT # _____ LOCATED AT _____ WOULD LIKE TO HAVE SEPARATE AND EQUAL CHECKS FOR THE SECURITY DEPOSIT RETURN".

This statement will need to be signed by all lessees. We will then need a forwarding address for each resident.

3. You will need to return your keys to The Apartment Store Rental Office.

IF THE DOOR KEY AND MAIL BOX KEYS ARE NOT RETURNED BY 12:00 PM ON THE TERMINATION DATE OF YOUR LEASE, YOU WILL BE CHARGED FOR A LOCK CHANGE.

4. If you turn your keys in when the office is closed, please enclose keys, receipts and forwarding address in an envelope. The envelope can then be placed in our drop slot located at the Rental Office.

Your security deposit will be returned within 30 days from the termination date of your lease. Included will be an itemized list of any damages and any other deductions.

We thank you for your cooperation and we trust your stay with us has been a pleasant one.
Best of luck in the future!
